- C20.1 upon an order of the Board; or
- C20.2 upon a written requisition signed by at least thirty Shareholders (of whom at least twenty-five must be Resident Shareholders) stating the business for which the meeting is to be convened; or

- C22 Subject to rule C24, all general meetings shall be convened by at least fourteen Clear Days' written notice posted or delivered by hand or sent by Electronic Communication to every Shareholder at the address or Electronic Communication address given in the share register. The notice shall state whether the meeting is an annual general meeting or special general meeting, the time, date and place of the meeting, and the business for which it is convened.
- C23 Any accidental failure to get any notice to any Shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at that general meeting. A notice or communication delivered by hand or sent by post to a Shareholder at their address or Electronic Communication address shown in the register of Shareholders shall be deemed to have arrived as specified in rule G14.14.
- C24 Seventy-five per cent of Shareholders may agree, by consenting in writing, or by confirming through Electronic Communication, to a general meeting being held with less notice than required by rule C22.

Proceedings at general meetings

- C25 Before any general meeting can start its business there must be a quorum present. A quorum is present if:
- C25.1 at least three Shareholders (of which at least two must be Resident Shareholders) are present; and
- C25.2 all Shareholders are able to hear and see each other, and are able to comment on the proceedings. This can be by any method which enables them to do this including hybrid and virtual means. C26 A meeting held as a result of a Shareholders' requisition will be dissolved if too few Shareholders are present half an hour after the meeting is scheduled to begin.

C27 All other general meetings where too few Shareholders are present half an hour after the meeting should begin will be adjourned to the same day, at the same time and at the Association's registered office in the following week. If less than the number of Shareholders set out in rule C25 are present within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting is scheduled to have started, those Shareholders present shall carry out the business of the meeting.

C28 At all general meetings of the Association the Chair of the Board shall preside. If there is no such Chair or if the Chair is not present or is unwilling or unable to act, the vice Chair (if any) shall chair the meeting, failing which the Members present shall elect a Member to chair the meeting. C29.2 adjourn the meeting at the request of a majority of the Shareholders present or by proxy or if (acting reasonably) he concludes that it is necessary to do adjourn the meeting to protect the health and/or safety of those present.

C30 An adjourned meeting can only deal with matters adjourned from the original meeting. An adjourned meeting is a continuation of the original meeting. The date of all resolutions passed is the date they were passed (as opposed to the date of the original meeting). There is no need to give notice of an adjournment or to give notice of the business to be transacted.

Proxies

C31 Any Shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may appoint another person, whether or not a Shareholder, as their proxy to attend and vote on their behalf. A proxy can be appointed by delivering a written appointment, which may be by way of Electronic Communication, to the registered office, or such other place as may be selected by the Board and stated in the meeting notice, at least 48 hours before the date of the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. It must be signed or confirmed by Electronic Communication and sent by the Shareholder or a duly authorised attorney. Any proxy form delivered late shall be invalid. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final.

Voting

C32 Subject to the provisions of these Rules or of any statute, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall, except where a ballot is demanded or directed, be decided upon a show of hands.

C33 On a show of hands every Shareholder present and on a ballot every Shareholder present or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

- C34 Unless a ballot is demanded (either before or immediately after the vote), a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried or lost, unanimously or by a particular majority, is conclusive. An entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- C35 Any question as to the acceptability of any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy, shall be determined by the chair of the meeting, whose decision shall be final.
- C36 A ballot on a resolution shall be held:
- C36.1 if demanded by:
- no fewer than three Shareholders present or by proxy (where thirty or fewer Shareholders are present or by proxy at a quorate general meeting); or

- C36.2 directed by the chair of the meeting, and such direction or demand may be withdrawn.
- C37 A ballot may be demanded or directed after a vote on the show of hands, and in that case the resolution shall be decided by the ballot.
- C38 A ballot shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall direct. The result of such a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Association in general meeting.
- C39 Subject to the Act, a resolution in writing signed or confirmed by letter or by Electronic Communication by or on behalf of the requisite majority of the Shareholders, for the time being, entitled to vote on the relevant resolution shall be as valid and effective as a resolution passed at a properly called and constituted meeting of Shareholders provided that a copy of the proposed resolution has been delivered in accordance with these Rules to all Shareholders and the requisite majority of Shareholders referred to in rule C40 has delivered their agreement in accordance with these Rules. Such resolution when signed or approved may comprise more than one document in the same form, each signed or approved, by one or more Shareholders.
- C40 For the purposes of rule C39 the requisite majorities are:
- in the case of an ordinary resolution, a simple majority of Shareholders who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting;
 - in the case of a resolution requiring a two-thirds majority of Shareholders, at least two-thirds of the Shareholders who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting; or
 - in the case of a resolution requiring a three-quarters majority of Shareholders, at least three-quarters of the Shareholders who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting.

and any Board Member, co-optee or committee member who at any time ceases to qualify under this rule shall immediately cease to be a Board Member, co-optee or committee member (as appropriate).

D8

A Board Member may be removed from the Board:

- D8.1 by a Special Resolution at a general meeting; or
- D8.2 by a resolution passed by two-thirds of the Board Members, excluding the Board Member subject of the proposed removal and excluding co-optees and employees, provided the following conditions are satisfied:
 - at least fourteen days' notice of the proposed resolution has been given to all Board Members; and
 - the notice sets out in writing the reasons for the removal; and
 - the Board is satisfied that the reasons justify the removal.

- D9 Whenever the number of Board Members and co-optees is less than permitted by these Rules, the Board may appoint a further Board Member in addition to the Board's power to co-opt. Any Board Member so appointed shall retire at the next annual general meeting.

Terms of office and election or appointment to the Board

- D10 Subject to these Rules the Board may from time to time decide and set written procedures for the appointment, election and re-election of persons to the Board and all Board Members shall be appointed, elected and/or re-elected in accordance with such written procedures.
- D11 A Board Member may resign by giving a written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- D12 Each Board Member appointed under rule D10 (other than employees) shall be appointed for a fixed term of office (each a fixed term). The fixed term shall be for a term of three years. The maximum tenure will usually be up to six consecutive years (typically two terms of office) unless the Board resolves otherwise. No fixed term shall be set which would cause the relevant Board Member to serve for a term of more than six consecutive years (and for this purpose time served on the board of any predecessor of the Association shall be counted), save where the Board in its absolute discretion agrees that circumstances exist where it would be in the best interest of the Association for a Board Member to serve for a longer period.
- D13
- D13.1 At every annual General Meeting each Resident Board Member and each Independent Board Member appointed under rule D10 who has served their fixed term shall retire from office. Any Board Member who retires from office at an annual General Meeting under this rule D13 shall be eligible for re-appointment subject to any Board membership policies and subject to any restrictions contained within these Rules.
- D13.2 Any Board Member retiring under Rule D12 having completed six years' continuous service (or six years' continuous service plus any extended period agreed by the Board under that Rule) on either the Board of the Association and/or or any predecessor which is also a registered provider shall not be eligible for re-appointment for at least three years.
- D14
- D14.1 The Board, in setting appointment criteria for Board candidates and appointing Board Members, shall each endeavour always to ensure that the Board possesses the quality, skills, competencies and experience which the Board has from time to time determined that it requires.
- D14.2 The appointment of Resident Board Members and Independent Board Members shall be ratified at each relevant Annual General Meeting.
- D15 The Board may appoint or co-opt employees to the Board on such terms as the Board resolves but no employee may be appointed (or co-opted) to the Board if, following their appointment (or co-option), employees would be in a majority.

Quorum for the Board

- D16

- D16.1 Subject to the provisions of rule D16.2 three Board Members shall form a quorum of which at least one must be a Resident Board Member. The Board may determine a higher number or impose additional requirements.
- D16.2 The Board will not be quorate unless Board Members who are employees of the Association and Resident Board Members are each in a minority.
- D16.3 If the number and make up of Board Members falls below the number and make up necessary for a quorum, the remaining Board Members may continue to act as the Board for a maximum period of six months and the provisions of rules D16.1 and D16.2 shall be suspended for that time. At the end of that time the only power that the Board may exercise shall be to bring the number and make up of Board Members up to that required by these Rules.

Board Members' interests

- D17 No Board Member, co-optee or member of a committee shall have any financial interest in any contract or other transaction with the Association or be granted a benefit by the Association, unless such interest or benefit:
 - D17.1 is expressly permitted by these Rules; or
 - D17.2 would not be in breach of, and would not be inconsistent with, any guidance, standard or code published by the Regulator, section 122 of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008 or any code of conduct and/or governance adopted by the Board.
- D18 Any Board Member, co-optee or member of a committee, having an interest in any arrangement between the Association and someone else shall disclose their interest before the matter is discussed by the Board or any committee. Such disclosure must comply with any code of conduct and/or governance adopted by the Board from time to time. Unless it is expressly permitted by these Rules they shall not remain present (unless requested to do so by the Board or committee) and they shall not have any vote on the matter in question.
- D19 Subject to rule D20, if a question arises at a meeting of Board Members or of a committee of the Board as to the right of a Board Member, co optee or member of a committee to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chair or chair of the committee in the case of a member of a committee, whose ruling in relation to any Board Member, co optee or member of a committee (other than the Chair or chair of the committee) is to be final and conclusive.
- D20 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the Chair or chair of the committee, the question is to be decided by a decision of the Board Members or members of that committee at that meeting, for which purpose the Chair or chair of the committee is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.
- D21 Any decision of the Board or of a committee shall not be invalid because of the subsequent discovery of an interest which should have been declared.

- D22 Every Board Member, co-optee and member of a committee shall ensure that the Secretary at all times has a list of:
- D22.1 all other bodies in which they have an interest as:
- a director or Officer; or

- D22.3 any other significant or material interest.
- D23 If requested by a majority of the Board Members or members of a committee (as appropriate) at a meeting convened specially for the purpose, a Board Member, co-optee or member of a committee failing to disclose an interest as required by these Rules shall vacate their office either permanently or for a period of time as the Board directs.

- D24.5 make payments to Board Members, co-optees or members of committees who are also employees of the Association arising out of or in connection with their employment; and
- D24.6 grant benefits to Board Members, co-optees or members of committees who are beneficiaries which are granted on the same terms and in accordance with the same criteria as they would be granted to any other beneficiary of the Association.
- D25 A Board Member, co-optee or member of a committee shall not have an interest for the purpose of rules D17 to D22 as a Board Member, director or Officer of any other Group Member.
- D26 Board Members, co-optees or members of committees who are Residents shall be deemed not to have an interest for the purpose of rules D17 to D22 in any decision affecting all or a substantial group of Residents.

D27 The grant of tenancy, licence or lease by the Association or by any other group member at the direction of another body on a basis which is consistent with any applicable guidance, determination, standard or code of practice of the regulator (or any code of conduct and/or governance of the Board from time to time, adopted by the Board) to a Board Member, co-optee or member of a committee is not the grant of a benefit for the purpose of rule D19.

D28.1 The Board may authorise any matter which would or might, if not so authorised, create, perpetuate or involve a situation where a Board Member's duties to a third party may conflict with that Board Member's duties to the Association. The Board's authorisation may be made on such terms as the board shall think fit.

D28.2 The Board may revoke or vary such authorisation at any time, but this will not affect anything done by the relevant Board Member which was in accordance with the terms of the previously given authorisation prior to such revocation or variation.

D28.3 Any authorisation given under rule D28.1 shall only be effective if any quorum requirements for the meeting are met without counting the Board Member in question.

D29 Subject to any applicable law or regulation, the Board may authorise full or partial disclosure of any or all information relating to the Association to a third party on such terms and in such circumstances, as it thinks fit.

D30 In rules D17 to D28, a conflict means a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and interest includes both direct and indirect interests.
